ERY THANKFUL. THANK YOU FOR ALLOWING ME A SPACE WHERE I CAN SPEAK MY MIND. I APPRECIATE EVERYONE HERE WILLING TO SHARE THEIR EXPERIENCES WITH ME.

In the beginning we didn't know what we wanted to come out of this. We played with the idea of making an entire magazine but then we realized how many people we fall in love with daily that just need that love and support poured into them.

To be featured in this digital editorial means that your craft is respected, your time isn't coming, it's here already. To those that get an opportunity to meet and support these people, this is your reassurance that your love is not wasted. The people that get featured in this editorial have a magic that deserves to be shared, you're welcome.

MIC WRECK TALKS LIFE, PASSION, AND SUPERHEROES.

What talents do you possess? If you weren't doing this than what would you be doing?

I possess many talents with the blessing from God, but what I'm most focused on is Music, Art and Fashion. If I wasn't doing any of these talents I would be a football coach for a high school team.

Where are you from?

I was born in Cleveland, Ohio and grew up on St. Clair. Some things I went through when I was younger was a lot of drugs and violence that could easily suck you in if you were weak minded. Gratefully I had two great parents growing up that did their best with what was in front of them and teaching me the core values of life that I use today.

Where does your inspiration come from?

I find my artistic inspiration from everyday life. I like the authentic feel of letting things come to me naturally and not forcing it. That's what made me what I am today.

Talk about your most recent project.

My latest visual "Lose" shot by Bolo who is super dope. We came up with a vision and executed it giving people something fresh to vibe to. I am also proud of dropping the first pieces of my clothing line, VolerL'ame. We sold out in the first week! I feel like my next drop will sell out faster.

Who is one of your real-life superheroes?

My superhero is my father. He is one of the most talented and loving people you'll ever come across.

Keep it real, what are you doing it all for?

The purpose of me promoting is to gain lifetime family through the love of the Music and Fashion and make people feel good about themselves when they are apart of it.

That's mad admirable! Anything else?

I wanna give a shout out to all of my brothers, my family and God for always being there for me. I wouldn't be the person I am today without them.

Mic Wreck said keep looking out for the following artists.

Dana Saf, FlyTye, Reno250, TredoeHitta, Goldie, Summr, & Freshie.

CARE

WHAT YOU WIS

"This entire EP gives some good vibes to ride to, smoke to, and have a good time" (Wreck, 2020). Especially at a time when it's needed most, Mic Wreck has consistently been providing great west coast vibes to the mid-west. With popular radio and club hits like 'Lose' and 'Pull Up', Wreck has been able to enter the industry and provide standards for upcoming artists.

He makes songs that people can really relax to. Cleveland, OH doesn't have many songs that focus on giving the culture of the city to the outside world. Mic Wreck focuses on allowing people to experience the natural vibe that every Clevelander brags about. There's a reason Clevelander's are so diehard, and that's because of people like Mic Wreck.

Inspiring. Creating. Evolving.

Careful what you wish for introduces one of the cities newest hits "No Extra's". Once again Mic Wreck has proven to continue that essential polish we expect from him. Download this track on all the hottest platforms today!

With a goal to tap into both the fashion and music industry, there is no reason to hold back, and Mic doesn't. The direction that he puts into his art style and the skill he possesses to bring stories to life allows him to be one of Cleveland, OH's most skilled artists. Versatility - Purpose - Talent, Mic Wreck.
