ERY FEW ARE RESPECTED FOR THEIR TALENT BEFORE THEIR FAMOUS. CHANGE ISN'T COMING. IT'S HERE.

In the beginning we didn't know what we wanted to come out of this. We played with the idea of making an entire magazine but then we realized how many people we fall in love with daily that just need that love and support xpoured into them. To be featured in this digital editorial means that your craft is respected, your time isn't coming, it's here already. To those that get an opportunity to meet and support these people, this is your reassurance that your love is not wasted. The people that get featured in this editorial have a magic that deserves to be shared, you're welcome.

“you’re

welcome.”

MEET THE ARTIST

Tony Tru is a 26-year-old musical proverb from Cleveland, OH born on July 8, 1992 (Zodiac: Cancer). That's right ladies, he's affectionate and nurturing.

2019 marking his 6th year as a professional artist, Tru has been destined for a career as a musician. "Music is my religion! I need it like air it's all I think about day in and day out. I just feel like I don't have the support that I need to take it to the next level so I just control my own narrative and started doing freestyles" (Tru, 2019).

Linking his audience to music worth listening to, Tru has provided vibes that bring real life scenarios to the surface. "I feel like music is so much about politics and a strong team. The talent part gets so overlooked" (Tru, 2019).

Growing up in Cleveland, OH had its own set of struggles that came with it. As an outlet for frustration and pain, Tru began writing and recording music to keep his mind off of the exterior. Staying focused in a world filled with distractions makes another reason why this artist deserves nothing but respect.

He was right but no longer, we wanted to sit down with this artist to find out more about his newest tape Epiphany \(Click to download now\). With an opportunity to have the first real listen and insight on the mind behind the music, Tony Tru is someone everyone should watch.

"MUSIC IS SO MUCH ABOUT POLITICS..."
